2	Tintoreras Islet: Early in the morning visit to the Tintoreras Islet, where you may be able to see sea lions and Galapagos Penguins, and also White tipped reef sharks (depends on season). After lunch, you will land at Puerto Villamil in Isabela Island, the largest and one of the youngest island in the archipelago. First you will visit the Flamingo Lagoon, and then the breeding center Arnaldo Tupiza, where you will see hundreds of giant Galapagos tortoises. This project was created to rescue endangered populations of tortoises that live around the island. In the early afternoon, return to the yacht and dinner.
3	Moreno Point & Elizabeth Bay: Early in the morning visit Moreno Point in the north coast of Isabela, between volcanoes Sierra Negra and Cerro Azul, through a trail of solidified lava until a coastal lagoon where you will see several species of birds. During the afternoon you will go to Elizabeth Bay, the excursion has no landing point so we take a zodiac ride. You will visit the Marielas islets, and see the most important penguin colony and a cove to observe seas turtles, flightless cormorants, spotted eagle rays, brown pelicans and sea lions.
4	Tagus Cove and Espinoza Point: Early in the morning, go to Tagus Cove to see the Galapagos penguins, flightless cormorants and other seabirds. Then hike along the trail to the top of the cliff where you can view Darwin Lake and the graffiti on the surrounding cliffs of the cove, written by pirates, whalers and buccaneers in past centuries. After lunch, visit Espinoza point in Fernandina, where you will see large colonies of marine iguanas. Dinner and end of the day.
5	Bachas Beach: At the beginning of the day, you will visit Bachas Beach, at the west of Turtle Cove, these are two small beaches and its sand is a nice nesting place for sea turtles. Behind this beaches there is a small brackish water lagoon, where it is possible to observe flamingos and coastal birds, like black necked stilts. The other beach was a strategic point during WWII used to protect Panama Channel. After this activity, you will take a shuttle back to Seymour Ecological Airport to take your flight back to the continent.
